BOMBS IN CANTON.

SOVIET HIDING PLACES DISCOVERED.

INVASION THREAT.

Kongmoon Being Scoured For Communists.

IRONSIDES STEADILY LOSING IN POWER AND INFLUENCE.

Further accusations against the Soviet Consulate-General in Canton have been made but such are not official although they are in connection with the seizure by the police of 48 bombs.

Kongmoon is being scoured for Communists, and the Kwangsi garrison there has also found time to threaten the "Papersides" of Canton with invasion unless there is a change in policy.

Confidence is being restored in Canton city, but political developments are imminent. The Ironsides are losing in power and influence but are still trying their hardest to avoid losing "face."

LOSS OF "FACE" FEARED.

Documents seized at the Soviet Consulate-General in Canton are alleged to have revealed the hiding places of a large quantity of bombs and explosives which had been secreted before the Reds' outbreak in the city.

Acting on information, the city police dug up the ground adjoining a tea-house on the heights outside the north of the city and here found 42 bombs carefully concealed.

Near a playing field a short distance away, six other bombs were found.

The police allege that the explosives were held in readiness by the Communists.

The Reds' Trail.

Having put a considerable distance between themselves and the Canton Government forces, the Communist army which fled from Canton is now making its way by a wide detour to reach the hinterland of Hsiao Bay to join the "Soviet government" which is in existence up-country.

Word having been received, villages along the road of the Reds' march are combining together to resist them on approach. As a result, looting and pillaging has decreased.

Confidence in Canton has gained rapidly during the last few days.

HOT PURSUIT.

Kongmoon Being Cleared of Red Pests.

Pakkai (Kongmoon), Yesterday. Great activity against labour unions and Communist agitators has been shown by the 13th division of Kwangsi troops who returned to control here a few days ago.

Many arrests have been effected but most of the best known leaders have fled.

The recent crisis has caused the merchants to be apprehensive of Nationalist banknotes and business is seriously hampered as a result.—Our own correspondent.

PRESSURE EXERTED.

Kwangsi Troops' Overtures to Papersides.

Pakkai (Kongmoon), Yesterday. Pressure is being exerted indirectly on the Canton Government by the 13th division of Kwangsi troops who returned to control here this week.

As proof of their good faith, the Kwangsi commanders have refrained from interfering with the pro-Canton officials who were recently put in charge of revenue bureaus by the Papersides who have now been recalled to Canton.

The Kwangsi leaders insist on General Li Fook-lum, commander-in-chief of the Papersides, declaring his support for General Li Chai-sum and the Kwangsi faction.

Threat to Invade Canton.

In fact the 13th division threatens invasion of Canton—a possibility but not a probability at the moment—if the Papersides do not immediately sever connection with the Ironsides administration of Canton. If the Papersides declare for the Kwangsi faction, the latter will have a preponderance, hastening the downfall of the Ironsides.

To show that they are quite willing to be friends with the Papersides, the 13th division has not laid hands on any of the venue which still goes back to the Papersides in Canton.—Our own correspondent.

THE IRONSIDES.

Losing Ground, But Trying to Save Face.

No change is perceptible in the policy of the Ironsides' government of Canton. There is still a hankering for an understanding with the nominees of General Chiang Kai-shek as restoration of the Kwangsi faction will entail loss of face to the Ironsides.

Belonging to a corps which maintains a negative political policy, a division of troops has reached Canton from Kongmoon to strengthen the city defence.

Two brigades of Yunnanese mercenaries have reached Samshui, on the West River, from the North River.

"Remains to be Seen."

The Kwangsi expedition down the West River against Canton is marking time, waiting for help from neutral factors.

Very few Ironsides are in Canton city, the majority being along the East River where, strange to say, there is the least danger of invasion by the Kwangsi faction.

The Ironsides' star is definitely in the descendant but it remains to be seen whether the Kwangsi faction, or Chiang Kai-shek's nominee, will succeed them.

CONTROL OF CANTON.

General Li Chai-sum on the Way Back.

Shanghai, Yesterday. General Li Chai-sum sails tomorrow (Friday) on the "President McKinley" for Hong Kong, to return to Canton.—"Kung Sheung Yat Po."

The "Big Four."

Shanghai, Yesterday. General Pei Chung-hsi, one of the big four of the Kwangsi military group, has ordered a division of troops to support General Li Chai-sum's return to Canton. The troops will go in warships and land at Swatow.—"Kung Sheung Yat Po."

General Li Chai-sum is also one of the big four. His colleague is reported as having ordered an attack on Canton by way of Hankow and (overland) Hunan province.

Another Version.

Shanghai, Yesterday. The Nationalist Government has authorised General Li Chai-sum to take over control of Canton, General Chang Fah-kuei and General Wong Ki-cheung having resigned or disappeared.

General Li Chai-sum will leave for Canton on Monday or Tuesday.—Reuter.

THEFT FROM AN HOTEL.

The manager of the Glenelg Hotel has reported to the police the theft from the hotel some time between noon and 6 p.m. yesterday of some clothing worth $55.

During Traffic Sergeant Hopkins' absence from his quarters at No. 86, Calne Road, ground floor, between 10.30 a.m. and 4.30 p.m., yesterday, a thief entered by forcing a window and stole money, clothing and jewellery worth $147.

Clothing and jewellery worth $104 was yesterday reported stolen from the first floor of No. 182, Wooning Street.

TWO EXCEPTIONS.

Soviet Departure From China.

TEA BUYERS & RAILWAY STAFF.

Nationalist Government's Latest Decision.

Shanghai, Yesterday. The Nationalist Government is allowing Centrososjus, a big Russian firm of tea-buyers, and the agency of the Chinese Eastern Railway to carry on under supervision.—Reuter.

The staffs of the two concerns are Russian. All Russians have been ordered to leave but the order, it seems, has been modified in the case of the two named.

Chinese Merchants' Petition. The Chinese Tea Guild addressed the Nationalist authorities, regarding a relaxation in the governmental edict in so far as it concerned the Centrososjus (England), Ltd., because, as they asserted, this company is registered in Great Britain, is not a Soviet corporation, and that, since May 1, they have bought 180,000 chests of tea.

Further, that the company is organised solely for business reasons and does not spread Communist doctrines.

Volume of Trade.

Last Saturday it was rumoured that the Centrososjus would be permanently closed.

The Tea Guild did not, therefore, know what to do, as the company owed them more than $1,000,000 for business transacted during the past month, and further the Centrososjus annually bought more than 15, 10,000,000 worth of tea in the Yangtze Valley.

As the Centrososjus was a merely business concern, the petitioners requested that the Police should be withdrawn and that business as usual should be permitted.

SHANGHAI STRIKE.

Trams Under Escort: Peace Not in Sight?

Shanghai, Yesterday. A depleted tramway service, with a strong escort accompanying each car, is being maintained without untoward incident, but the negotiations for settlement of the strike have made no progress.—British Naval Wireless.

MORE EXECUTIONS.

Hankow's Campaign Against Communists.

Shanghai, Yesterday. A telegram from Hankow, dated the 21st inst., states that four more Chinese Communists, including one girl, were executed yesterday.

The former head of the Provincial Government, Kung Kang, with other officials, was apprehended yesterday evening. They are awaiting trial on charges of favouring Communism and of misgovernment.

Detained and Deported. It is authoritatively stated that the military authorities detained twelve Russian women and five men. All will be released shortly except two men, Glatz, the Dalbank manager, and Yessin, the Soviet trade representative, who will probably be deported after further investigation.—Reuter.

ACTING FOR SOVIET.

Germany's Attitude Towards China.

Berlin, Yesterday. The German Government has agreed to the Soviet request to take charge of the latter's interests in South China and has instructed its Consuls accordingly. It is semi-officially announced that the fulfilment of the Soviet's request is a matter of international courtesy, and did not mean taking charge of Diplomatic representation, which was impossible, as Germany had not yet recognised the Government of South China.

No Intervention.

No intervention in the political strife of China was intended, and German Consuls were not authorised to interfere in questions of high politics.

The announcement adds it follows that the fulfilment of the Russian request does not mean that Germany is now in a position

SOUDAN PROGRESS.

Freedom From Menace of Famine.

A NEW ERA.

Goodwill And Good Work By All Concerned.

Rugby, Yesterday. The annual report on the administration of the Sudan, published to-day, states that the completion of the Sennar dam, which was officially opened in January last year, marked a new era in the development of the Sudan.

"Thanks to favourable conditions and goodwill and good work on the part of all concerned the first year's results from the cultivation of cotton on a large scale were highly satisfactory, and the benefits pre-

FRESH AND FINE.

Northerly winds, moderate, fresh; fine, is the official weather forecast until noon to-morrow.

A fresh anticyclone has formed over Northern China and Manchuria. A depression covers South-west Japan. It is moving Eastward. The monsoon will freshen along the Coast of China and over the China-Sea.

dicted have been fully realised. Labour has presented no difficulty and the general well being of the natives in the thickly populated Gazira area is manifested. Cultivation and production have been quickened by science to the vast advantage of the natives, but there has been no upheaval of the social system.

In a country where the people have had to rely for their sustenance on a capricious rainfall, a guarantee of freedom from the menace of famine is the richest of blessings. Fifty thousand acres of irrigated land were sown with grain, and the harvest made a doubly welcome addition to the food supply in lean years.

The direct and indirect financial results of the cultivation season covered by the report were thoroughly satisfactory. There was a small actual surplus on the year's working, but the indirect results were even more important, and the report pointed out that account must be taken of additional revenue earned by the Government from extra railway traffic, export and import duties, and the traders' tax on syndicates' profits. The additional net revenue accrued in this way probably amounted to at least 150,000 Egyptian pounds.

It is added that the Gezira project in 1925 was an important factor in saving the Government from what would have been a very costly and difficult problem in relieving the famine, which otherwise would have occurred.

Future Changes. As regards the future many changes are in sight. For the current season the area under cotton has been increased from 80,000 to 100,000 feddans. As regards the more distant future the Government has concluded an agreement with a syndicate to extend the concession area from 800,000 to 465,000 feddans and ultimately to increase Government share to 40 per cent.—British Wireless Service.

SERIOUS ACCIDENTS.

SLUMBERERS FALL FROM COCKLOFTS.

DEATH OF YOUNG GIRL.

Two Chinese met with serious accidents last night as the result of falling from cocklofts whilst asleep. The first case was reported by a Chinese salesman living at No. 17, Hing Hon Road, who stated that daughter fell from the cockloft and about 9.30 his small 14-year-old daughter received severe injuries to her head. She was immediately removed to the Government Civil Hospital was advised. She died on the way to the latter institution.

In the other case, a coolie fell from a cockloft in a coolie house in which he was sleeping. This happened at 2 o'clock this morning, and he was removed by the Police to the Government Civil Hospital, suffering from injuries to his head.

to shield Communist propaganda or excuses.—Reuter.
Chiang Kai-shek.
Shanghai, To-day. Chiang Kai-shek, it is said, will resume the role of generalissimo as from January 1.—Reuter.

COMMERCIAL PHONES

Coming Service To All Countries.

CABLES v. WIRELESS.

Baron Inverforth's Views On The Controversy.

London, Yesterday. The early installation of a commercial telephone service to all countries served by the beam system was foreshadowed by Baron Inverforth at the annual meeting of Marconi's, which adopted the Directors' report on the effects of reconstruction and recommending a dividend of sixpence per share.

Baron Inverforth drew attention to the Company's progress. He said that up to now the results of the South African and Indian Campaigns gave reason for optimism. As regards the controversy of cables versus wireless, he said that nothing must be done to deprive the trading interests of the Empire of the advantages of beam.—Reuter.

Trans-Atlantic Service.

Rugby, Yesterday. Replying to a question in the House of Commons regarding the trans-Atlantic wireless telephone service Lord Wolmer, Assistant Postmaster-General, said that the revenue of the service covered the working costs but not yet depreciation and amortisation. Asked whether a reduction of the present rate of 25 per minute would not result in more traffic, Lord Wolmer replied that the traffic was steadily growing and the Postmaster-General, as present advised, was not prepared to reduce the rate. He hoped that, as business men more and more realised the great advantage which were to be obtained from using the service they would realise how extremely cheap it was.

Answering a further question

whether the Postmaster-General would consider a reduction of the rate at certain hours of the day, Lord Wolmer said that the Postmaster-General had this and other suggestions before him. These matters raised, not only in this country, but also in America questions of the agreement between the two countries. As soon as he was so advised he would vary the rates as he thought fit.—British Wireless Service.

LIRA AND FRANC.

WILL FRANCE FOLLOW ITALY'S EXAMPLE?

SPAIN'S GOOD POSITION.

Washington, Yesterday. In view of the close relationship of the lira and the franc Mr. Mellon and the Federal Reserve Board believe that Italy's adoption of the gold standard will probably be the forerunner of similar action by France.

Mr. Mellon is of opinion that Italy's action will not require a substantial exportation of gold from the United States and will not appreciably affect business since banking circles have been aware of the negotiations for some time.

Meanwhile the Vice-Governor of the Federal Reserve Board calls attention to the fact that Spain has sufficient stocks of gold to adopt a gold basis at any time.—Reuter's American Service.

MR. LLOYD GEORGE.

GUEST OF BRAZILIAN GOVERNMENT.

Rugby, Yesterday. Mr. Lloyd George has few public engagements in Brazil but will be the guest at a dinner given by the Brazilian Foreign Minister and will attend a reception of the British Chamber of Commerce at Rio.—British Wireless Service.

Mr. Aris's Chief Inspectorship of Kowloon is a newly created post, there being up to the present one Chief Inspector for both Hong Kong and Kowloon.—Reuter.

THREAT TO PEKING.

IMPORTANT NATIONALIST CAPTURE.

400 MILES AWAY.

Fresh Spurt in Race to the Northern Capital.

GENERAL CHIANG KAI-SHEK RETURNING TO POWER.

After relief for a few months, Peking (the northern capital of China) is once more in danger of being attacked by potent adversaries who are now reaching to a point about 400 miles away.

Will history be repeated? When the Nationalists got to within 400 miles of Peking in the summer, there began a race between them and two other armies, but they were all thrown back in confusion.

An important capture for the Nationalists is claimed. Added to this is the prospect of General Chiang Kai-shek's immediate return to power. And there is no race with competitors this time.

RACE FOR THE CAPITAL?

Shanghai, Yesterday. The Nationalists claim the capture of Lincheng, in the south of Shantung province, from the Northern armies.—Reuter.

Lincheng is about 400 miles from Peking, and the Tientsin-Pukow Railway runs through it, lying on the direct road of the Nationalists in their attempted march to Peking.

Some years ago, a large number of prominent foreign tourists were sensationally captured by bandits at Lincheng, the incident causing much anxiety to the Chinese Government.

By setting foot in Lincheng, the Nationalists have "climbed" into the last province but one to reach their goal.

CHIANG KAI-SHEK.

To Resume His Old Position Immediately?

Chinese reports to hand from the North point to General Chiang Kai-shek preparing to resume the position of commander-in-chief of the Nationalist armies, which he vacated a few months ago when he gave way to political intrigue.

Such a course may have a large effect on Nationalist activities and even on the war which is being pushed ahead against Peking.

Arbitrary Power. The "Kung Sheung Yat Po" says that officers have been appointed by Chiang Kai-shek to take charge of the army services and the main base supply at Nanking, two very important branches from which the various corps draw their pay and requirements.

As a matter of fact, it was control of these two organisations which gave Chiang Kai-shek his arbitrary power in the past.

It is anticipated that he will distribute a certain amount of pay to the troops as soon as he takes up the post at Nanking, the capital of the Nationalist Government.

Same Old Story. Several of the leading generals support Chiang Kai-shek's return to command in the field, although some of them opposed him before. The same old story has been repeated once more.

The generals were jealous of Chiang Kai-shek because he held the purse-strings. When he retired, the power went to a cabalistic council of war, so that the generals at the front still got little or nothing and they now think that Chiang Kai-shek, after all, may be better than a Council.

Some Opposition. But not all the generals are going to let Chiang Kai-shek have his way, in spite of the glamour attached to his name. He has very few troops who can be classed as his "diehards" and is, accordingly, looking for recruits.

Hunan province is the most likely field for the remnants of the defeated Hankow army are there. However, the Nanking generals at Hankow have made up their minds that Chiang Kai-shek is not to collect those remnants. And the best way to ensure this, they think, is to hasten up the attack on these remnants.

200 MILES' GAIN.

How Nationalists Threaten Peking.

Within the last month or so, the Nationalists—in co-operation with the Kuomintang

—have won ground fairly rapidly against the Northern armies.

Many vicissitudes have been experienced by both sides in the war.

With the Kuomintang (under the "Christian General") coming in, the Northerners have had a bad time which has become worse through disagreement between Marshal Sun Chuan-fang and General Chang Tsung-chang.

Anxiety in Peking. The Nationalist army has marched about 200 miles northwards and Peking is still another 400 miles away.

That anxiety is being felt by the Fengtien Government at Peking is evident from a new report that it is desirous of coming to peace with General Yen Hsi-shan of Shansi province. The war between Fengtien and Shansi has been in a condition of stalemate for over a month but a truce has not been declared. Peace is wanted so that the Fengtien armies will be left free to resist the determined Nationalist offensive.

ART SALE.

ELEVEN PICTURES FROM CURZON COLLECTION.

A ROMNEY FOR 12,000 GUINEAS.

Rugby, Yesterday. Eleven pictures from the collection of late Marguerite Curzon, former Foreign Secretary, were sold at Christie's sale rooms and realised 23,000 guineas. They included Romney's portrait of Lady Milner, which was knocked down for 12,000 guineas.—British Wireless Service.

COLLECTION DESTROYED.

Fatal Conflagration in Poland.

Warsaw, Yesterday. Nine persons were incinerated and fifteen seriously injured—the former including Freyer, one of the most prominent Polish athletes while doing rescue work—as the result of a great fire at Ozkow Castle, near Cnawin, in which a valuable collection of old masters and relics of Polish and Austrian history was destroyed.—Reuter.

SUBMARINE LOSS.

KING GEORGE'S MESSAGE TO COOLIDGE.

A NATIONAL CALAMITY.

Rugby, Yesterday. The following message has been sent by His Majesty the King to the President of the United States:—

"I am much grieved at the sad disaster to the United States Navy submarine S-4, involving so great loss of life, and desire to assure you, Mr. President, the American people, and more especially the bereaved families, that they have my heartfelt sympathy in this national calamity."—British Wireless Service.

ROYAL CHRISTMAS.

OBSERVING OLD CUSTOMS AT SANDRINGHAM.

Rugby, Yesterday. Their Majesties the King and Queen, with their little granddaughter, Princess Elizabeth, left London to-day for Sandringham, where Christmas will be spent in the customary way of making it a Royal family party.—British Wireless Service.

FINANCE MATTERS.*CONFUSION OVER PASSAGE PROVISION.*SUPPLEMENTARY EXPENSES.

A meeting of the Finance Committee followed the Council session yesterday, the Colonial Secretary presiding.

Votes for supplementary expenditure totalling $96,509 were approved. Dealing with the vote of an extra $50,000 for the transport of Government Servants the Hon. Mr. J. Owen Hughes asked how it was that the expenditure under this heading was so far from the original estimate. He pointed out that the margin of error was twenty-five per cent, and he wished to know who was responsible.

The Colonial Treasurer: I think the fault lies with the number of children for whom we very often have to provide passages.

The Chairman: It is extraordinarily difficult to make an exact estimate in a matter of this kind.

The Colonial Treasurer: Extra passages have no doubt been due to the alteration in leave regulations which entitles a Government servant to take leave after four years' service instead of after four and a half years.

Stationery Increases. The Hon. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton: I should like to draw attention to the increased cost of stationery. In 1926 it was a little over $50,000. This year it will be $72,000, an addition of $22,000 or more than thirty per cent. No explanation is given of why there has been such a very considerable rise in the cost.

The Colonial Treasurer: A great deal more printing is now being done in the jail than formerly. The jail now does practically all Government printing. The cost of paper, which appears under stationery account, goes up, and the charges for printing go down. Also the requirements of the Colonial Secretariat, which supplies all departments with stationery, were greater this year.

Jail Printing. Hon. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton: Printing is not included in stationery.

The Colonial Treasurer: No. Hon. Mr. W. E. L. Shenton: The printing is done in jail and therefore larger purchases of paper are required. There should be a considerable saving then on the printing vote.

The Chairman: Every effort is made in the Government service to economise in stationery. A good deal of the money is really in suspense account. The stationery has to be purchased so that we may have it in stock when printing is required.

PIRACY MENACE.

TOW BOAT CAPTURED BY BLACK LAUNCH.

The s.s. "Kinshan" reports that as she was passing Lin Fa Shan, near Whampoa, a sampan from the A.P.C. steam-launch "Si Si" came out with a message that a Chinese tow-boat had been pirated and captured by a black painted launch. The launch and its occupants disappeared up the East River.

Presumably it has been looted and the crew made captives.

Pirate Blasts Ignored.

When the "Kinshan" was in the vicinity of the Tide Pole, a presumed pirate launch sounded four blasts as a signal for the ship to stop and attempted to come alongside. No notice was taken of the signal.

Shortly afterwards, an A.P.C. launch was met up with; this having on board a naval gun's crew, and was observed to be in chase of another presumed pirate launch, but this craft disappeared up a creek and could not be followed.

COCHRAN'S FIGHTS.

$25,000 IN GATE MONEY REFUSED.

When one reads of the huge sums which went to the participants in this week's big fight in America and then passes to C. B. Cochran's story of the amounts paid in some recent big fights in this country the comparison is remarkable.

Writing in the "Royal Magazine" for October Mr. Cochran says:—As an example of how innocent I could get Joe Beckett for £100 the first time I approached him for a fight at the Holborn Stadium. Not a bit of it; he began by wanting $1,000, and when I said that was preposterous he "came down" to $500. Bombardier Wells, his opponent, got the same amount—but, as it happened, the gate came to $3,344, so I did not do so badly out of that fight.

Until the recent Walker-Milligan fight $30,000 is the biggest gate I ever took at a boxing match. The fight was the Carpenter-Beckett one at the Stadium in 1919. Fully a thousand applications for 25 guinea tickets had to be refused because we simply had not the room. (This was the fight which lasted 78 seconds).

The question of whether boxers are really worth the money they get is often asked, and my reply (adds Mr. Cochran) is that it is all a matter of drawing power. When, for instance, Frank Goddard and Joe Beckett met under my direction $500 would have been a generous purse for them from the point of view of boxing, but what they actually received was—Beckett $2,500, Goddard $2,000. The winner was to meet Carpenter, and this made the match a drawing card with the public.

Here is another W. G. Grave yarn:—Dr. Grace disliked losing his wicket if he could possibly avoid it. On one occasion he hit the ball high into the air, and, seeing the fielder shape for a safe catch, turned to the fielding captain, and said, "I declare the innings closed" before the ball had time to drop.

ROCKET EXPLODES.

INCIDENT ON THE "EMPRESS OF RUSSIA."

Three young mess boys employed on board the Canadian Pacific s.s. "Empress of Russia" at present undergoing her annual overhauling at the Kowloon Docks were yesterday removed to the Kowloon Hospital suffering from injuries to their faces, hands and body caused by the explosion of a rocket which they attempted to fire.

Whilst at work unloading a lighter at the reclamation off Walching Street, Yaumati, yesterday afternoon, a cargo coole was rendered unconscious when a heavy piece of timber fell on him. He was removed to the Kowloon Hospital.

HAY CARGOES.

COMMENTS ON TWO RECENT FIRES.

Liverpool, Nov. 16.

Last week two cases of fire in cargoes of hay from British North America to this country were reported. The first of these was on board the C.P.R. liner "Metagama," the outbreak being first reported when the vessel was passing Greenock, and it will be remembered that although it was believed that the fire had been got under control, it broke out again after her arrival at Glasgow, and was not extinguished until a considerable amount of damage had been done, and the vessel had been gravely imperilled by the amount of water which had been pumped into her, and which caused her to take a serious list. The second case was that of the Belgian steamer "Menapier," which was first reported on fire off Dover, and which subsequently put into this port. At the time of writing no further details are available, and it is not known how serious this outbreak may prove to be.

These two cases are rather interesting, because they add one more to the list of interests in which fire at sea is apparently a serious casualty. From its very nature, hay is highly inflammable, and those who have seen a rick burning on shore can imagine what the consequences must be when a fire occurs in a ship's hold. Even if it is possible to prevent the access of air as to prevent a conflagration, it is to be imagined that hay will smoulder for a very considerable period, and, moreover, the use of water as an extinguisher is almost certain to result in grave deterioration even if it does not render the whole of the interest valueless. To the present writer hay from British North America, especially in a liner, is a somewhat unusual interest. Presumably we in this country are short of hay fodder as a result of the recent bad summer, and Canada may have had a good hay harvest, which enables this interest to be shipped across the Atlantic on economic terms.

This is a point worth note by underwriters, because if there is much hay being shipped across the Atlantic it would be well if they were to pay special attention to the question of the possibility of fire and its consequences. It must be remembered that any highly inflammable cargo, which may require large quantities of water for extinguishing purposes, is a serious danger to other cargo carried in the same vessel, if only because an outbreak may result in a serious General Average, while it must not be overlooked that before now vessels and their cargoes have been completely lost as a result of fire, even in these days of modern steamers and efficient extinguishing apparatus.

BIAS BAY PIRATES.

SIR CECIL CLEMENT'S
VISIT TO PEKING.

Next to the exploit in which a submarine surprised the pirates
of Bias Bay the best news we ("China Express and Telegraph")
have received concerning this menace to peaceful trade in South China comes as a result of the recent visit of the Governor of Hong Kong to Peking. Sir Cecil Clement, who has been most active in tackling the pirate problem, recently took a two months' holiday,
and on his way back from Japan
called at Peking where, it is reported,
he has succeeded in persuading
the Japanese, French, Italian and American diplomats to agree to a joint plan of action with the British for the suppression of the evil. The matter will no doubt have to be referred by the authorities concerned
to their respective governments,
but it is pretty certain that Sir Cecil Clement had already obtained Japanese sanction for his scheme before he broached the subject in Peking. He is now the man to have been idle during his holiday, part of which was spent among the highest officials in Tokyo. Obviously, in the face of such increasing audacity as the Bias Bay "farmers" have shown, the British navy alone cannot handle the problem. All nations are concerned, none more than the Chinese, and the time has arrived
when all must unite in a common effort to secure the freedom of China waters from a pest which hitherto has baffled all attempts to eradicate it. Details of the plan are awaited with a good deal of curiosity, though it may be that secrecy is absolutely necessary for its success. Whatever its nature, any plan for putting an end to piracy in South China waters will be heartily welcomed.

U. S. GUNBOATS.

FIRST OF YANGTZE PATROL
ON HER TRIALS.

Shanghai, Dec. 16.
Six river gunboats being built by the Kiangnan Dock and Engineering Works for the American Yangtze Patrol will soon be ready for putting into commission. The first of the six ships has been completed and is at present undergoing trials on the Yangtze. Another will be ready within the next five or six weeks,
and it is understood that the four remaining vessels will be completed
at the rate of one per month thereafter.

The new vessels are the Guam,
Tutuila, Samoa, Luzon, Mindanao
and the Cebu. The Guam was completed some time ago and is being tested by a board of American naval officers, headed by Captain Wallace Berthoff, which arrived here from Manila some days ago.

Trials of the Guam are at present being made on the Yangtze river, and a radio message from the gunboat reported that she is proving satisfactory, and that her speed under trials is actually greater than that called for in the specifications. The trials started on Wednesday and will be continued to-day, after which the Guam
will be turned over to American naval representatives who have arrived here.

Navy Board Here.

The Navy Board sent from Manila to superintend the trials of the Guam and the other ships consists of Captain Wallace
Berthoff, Lieutenant-Commander
Adrian R. Marron, Lieutenant
W. W. Pace and Ensign Edmund
A. Cunningham. Officers have been ordered to the Guam for duty when she is ready.

The vessels comprising the present Yangtze patrol are the "Falos," "Monocacy," "Villalobos," "Elcano" and "Isabel."
They are very old vessels and have been in commission many years.
It is believed that when the six
new gunboats are ready the old vessels will be taken out of commission and probably scrapped.

Special Features.

Built with special regard to conditions on the Yangtze, and especially the upper reaches of the river, the new gunboats will be the most modern of all foreign gunboats on the great waterway.
Among features of the vessels is overhead armour plating covering vital parts on deck as a defence
against firing levelled at the ships
from the high rocks lining both sides of the river.

THE CASE FOR THE CONCESSIONS.

Sir Austen Chamberlain, the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has again spoken on China in the House of Commons, and again has emphasised that the Government intend to proceed with the policy which was laid down a year ago, a policy which,
theoretically ideal, is, in the opinion of Britons working and living in the country, going to involve distinct hardship in practice. In the House Sir Austen was questioned regarding the White Paper (published last week) in which the Government announced its decision to surrender
the leases in the Chinese treaty ports conceded by the China Government between 1851
and 1861. Not a grain of comfort is to be derived from his reading of the decision, and his statement that, as regards their future

ownership, he had no reason to anticipate any change likely to be detrimental to British interests will carry no conviction among the lessees and other Britons in the Concessions. That he intends to pursue that policy, which many of us think will prove disastrous,
is unfortunately proven by his reminder that the Government proposed to relax rather than extend British control in the administration of those municipal areas.

That reminder puts the case in a nutshell. It means, in effect, that the Concessions at Tientsin,
Chinkiang, Amoy and Canton (Shameen, that is) are doomed to suffer the fate that has already overtaken the Concessions at Hankow and Kiukiang. Grass is growing in the streets of what was the Hankow Concession; the stretch of waterfront; shipping and commercial activities have ceased; what few Britons there are still in the place spend their time in empty offices and the club, hoping against hope for a change for the better. Sir Austen Chamberlain, by virtue of his pronouncement in the House of Commons a couple of days ago, has killed their aspirations. What is equally unpleasant is the fact that he has confirmed the worst fears of their fellows in the other Concessions. Britain is going to relax control in these areas.
They all know what this will mean, and so should the Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs.

It is not too late, however, to stay the doom of these other Concessions.
Energetic representation of the grave and ruinous consequences that will follow the operation of the Government's policy may still be made; and this is where individual Members like Mr. Looker and bodies like the China Association can prove of supreme usefulness. Members of Parliament, as much as the British public as a whole, are ignorant of what is taking place in China and where the Government's policy is leading us. The debate on the Shanghai Defence Force supplementary estimates
the other day vividly brought this fact to notice. What is required at Home is forceful repetition of the case for the Concessions.

Mainly because of increases in the prices of eggs, the cost of living at Home advanced by two points in October.

According to reports from Basrah,
fifty persons, including twenty police, were murdered in the Wahab's raid on the Irak frontier
police post.

PLAYING THE GAME.

CHINESE AND ASSOCIATION FOOTBALL.

DUTY OF EUROPEANS.

[By "Mentor."]

Saturday after Saturday, as we see the huge crowds wending
their way to the football matches
we wonder how all those Chinese spent their Saturday afternoons ten years ago. The great wall in England, that far too many people look on while only a sprinkling play, does not carry much weight here because, on Saturdays, all our pitches are utilised, and if a hundred more lads desired to play they would have to mark out makeshift pitches on the Wanchai reclamation or betake themselves to Aberdeen or Stanley for a piece of flat ground. So if we want more players we must have more playing fields. These great gatherings are of comparatively recent growth and are a sign that the Chinese are now aware of the value of outdoor games and bodily exercise. The beneficial effects are seen in the improved physique
of many of the young Chinese.
This is good, but there is a fly in the ointment, and the football
boom is fraught with dangers.

Victory Not The Thing.

It has often been said that far too many of us set too much store
on winning competitions instead of getting enjoyment, either as players or watchers, out of the games themselves. The game should be primary, the result secondary; but far too often the reverse is the case. Big crowds are largely responsible for this because they put a fictitious value
on the competition, and, with their mob psychology, engender
barracking and all too audible
criticism of the players and referees.
If such sportsmanlike conduct came from only the rougher element of the Chinese spectators one might shrug one's shoulders and hope that in time
those fanatics would drop such tunefully, however, some Europeans are not altogether blameless,
and this fact is greatly to be deplored.

Boorishness.

We have taught the Chinese
how to play Association Football, and very apt pupils have they proved to be. We are proud of their skill, artistry and team work, and when they go to Shanghai or tour Australia we follow their doings as eagerly as we would an Interport side. But our tuition must not stop here.
Just as the masters in the various schools have taught the Chinese scholars how to play, even so should European spectators show
the Chinese spectators how to view a game sportingly. Some of the remarks we have heard in the local grandstands from Europeans
are worthy of a frenzied pit-man or mill-worker at a "local derby"
at home howling on his team to win by hook or by crook (that is putting it mildly) and thinking of the shilling or half-crown he has laid on the home side. Europeans here should be exempt from such boorishness. Each should realise that, in a way, he is an ambassador, that he is one of the ruling minority, and that,
though he suspects it not, his actions are being scrutinised. We know that it is impossible for some persons to watch a game and keep cool; they must get excited,
their pulse quickens and even though both teams are strangers to them they inevitably find their sympathy going to one lot or combatants. There is nothing wrong in that, and in all probability these people derive more pleasure from watching a game
than less highly strung phlegmatics
do; but their eagerness
should not blind them to the virtues of the other side, nor should it cause them to wink at questionable tactics indulged in by their favourites and then howl in indignation, and very often execration, should the others retaliate.
There is such a thing as "playing the game" in the stand
as well as on the field.

FAKED NOTES?

COURT.

A COPPER DESIGN.

Further evidence was taken by Mr. R. E. Lindsell at the Central Magistracy this morning in the case in which a Chinese employee in the photographer department of the Commercial Press, Belcher Street, Kennedy Town, is charged with making a copper design of a $5 note of the Central Bank of China; and three other men were charged with aiding and abetting him.

Mr. Horace Lo appeared for the defence of the Commercial Press employee, whilst the other accused were defended by Mr. C. S. Hughes.

A young apprentice, employed in the photographer department of the Commercial Press gave evidence this morning. He said that on November 22 at about 6 p.m. after he had had his food, the second accused asked him to accompany him to the Ming Sing Chong photographer's shop near the Central Market.

When they arrived, they found
the first and third accused waiting outside the shop. Second accused remained outside with the others,
and sent the witness in to call out
a man named Kwan Man. They then went to Blake Pier where the second accused held a conversation
in low tones with Kwan Man, and then all five adjourned to a tea house.

Here the second accused handed to Kwan Man a $5 note of the Central Bank of China and asked him to make a photograph of it. Kwan Man asked for $40 for the job, and after consulting Nos. 1 and 3, the accused agreed to pay the price asked by Kwan Man. Then No. 1 handed No. 2 a $5 note of the Hong Kong and Shanghai Bank, and the latter gave this to Kwan Man as payment on account, promising to pay the balance of $35 later on.

The next morning the witness was working on the verandah of the Commercial Press Building when he noticed Kwan Man coming along the street. Second accused who was on the adjoining verandah
also saw Kwan Man and went down to meet him. They both disappeared round a corner and about five minutes later second accused returned to the works.

WOMAN KILLED.

ARMED ROBBERS' PALTRY HAUL.

The police have received the report
of an armed robbery which was stated to have been committed by a Chinese man and a woman on Wednesday night at Saiwan, Cheungchau. The raid resulted in one of the victims being murdered,
and the robbers got away with only
two pieces of jewellery worth $5.

At the time of the raid the only people in the house, which was unnumbered, were a 76-year-old Chinese woman and her grand-daughter.
The story of how the old woman
met her death was told to the police
by the little girl.

The girl and her grandmother were sleeping when they were awakened at about 7.30 in the evening
by the robbers breaking down
the door. The old woman went out of the sleeping room to investigate and was roughly handled by the robbers, and when the girl rushed out a little later upon hearing groans of agony from her grandmother, she found that the latter strangled by one of the intruders.

Place Ransacked.
The old woman pleaded for her life, telling the robbers to take everything, and eventually the robbers released her after warning her not to make so much noise. Then the female robber entered the sleeping room and proceeded to ransack
the place.

Whilst this was going on, the girl saw her chance and slipped out of the house. She proceeded to a neighbour's house where she gave the alarm, and when she had succeeded in securing assistance and returned to the house she found that the robbers had run away. Her grandmother was lying dead on the floor, and by her side was knife with which it was believed the old woman
had been butchered by the robbers.

The girl would not be able to identify either of the robbers because they had painted their faces
black.

A FORMER RESIDENT.

DEATH OF MR. W. A. C.
CRUICKSHANK.

The death is reported from Cannes, at the age of 67, of Mr.
William Arthur Cruickshank, who will be remembered by old residents of Hong Kong as one of the heads of Messrs. Jardine, Matheson and Co. before it became a limited company, over twenty years ago. Mr. Cruickshank was a popular resident of Hong Kong in those days, and, like most members of the Principality House before and after him, took a keen interest in racing. "China Express and Telegraph."

ISLAMIC UNION.

MOSQUE AND CEMETERY
IMPROVEMENTS.

NEW OFFICE-BEARERS.

The annual general meeting of the Hong Kong Islamic Union took place recently. Owing to the unavoidable absence of the Chairman, Mr. U. Ramjahn, the chair was occupied by Mr. S. Akker.

The Hon. Secretary, Mr. Juman
Ali, having read the notice convening the meeting, Mr. Akker reviewed the activities of the Society at some length and mentioned the various improvements that had been made in the Mohammedan Mosque and cemetery. He mentioned that through the great trouble
that Mr. Sopher, Hon. Treasurer, had taken in the collection of subscriptions, the Society was now in a fairly good financial position. He thanked Khan Sahib Nawab Khan,
for the valuable services he had rendered in connection with the improvements in the cemetery.

Mr. Akker proposed the adoption of the report and accounts, Mr.
S. A. Hamid seconded carried unanimously.

Mr. Akker tendered his resignation as a trustee of the Mosque and guardian of the cemetery, and Mr.
Sopher was elected in his place.
The following were elected office-
bearers for the ensuing year:—
Mr. U. Ramjahn (Chairman).
Mr. S. Sopher (Hon. Treasurer).
Mr. Juman Ali (Hon. Secretary).
Messrs. J. M. Dyer, O. Madar,
A. A. Samy, S. Akker, and Abdul Karim (Committee).
A vote of thanks was accorded to the Chairman on the motion of Mr.
A. Rahmin, seconded by Mr. D.
Ramjahn.

DRIVER CHARGED.

WOMAN WHO WAS KNOCKED DOWN.

The Chief Justice and a jury continued with the case this morning in which Sandi Khan, Mr. C. Bernard Brown's Indian chauffeur, is charged with the manslaughter of a Chinese woman named Ip Ching,
who died from severe injuries received through being knocked down
in Connaught Road West on the night of November 21 by a Buick motor car driven by the accused.

The case for the Crown was conducted by Mr. S. Fitzroy, whilst Mr.
Leo d'Almada, Jun., appeared for the defence and produced in Court
a model of the section of Connaught
Road where the accident occurred.

When the case was resumed this morning Mr. C. Bernard Brown said that on the evening in question he drove the car from the Hong Kong Club to Jardine's corner, arriving there at 8.5. Prisoner then took the car. Standing orders were that he should return it to the garage, which should have been reached half-an-hour later.
Sandi Khan had been in witness's employ for six months, and except for one occasion, when he was drunk, had given entire satisfaction.

Constable's Evidence.
An Indian constable who said that prisoner gave him a lift on the night of the accident said that when they approached the godowns the speed of the car was about 10 miles an hour. They knocked down two people, and prisoner sounded his horn once. The car then collided with a lamp post. Witness told the prisoner to stop, but he refused.

Cross-examined, the constable
said he did not know if prisoner had had any drink. He was sure the speed was not more than 10 miles an hour. When witness saw the two people who were knocked down they were walking in the middle of the road. Whilst passing the godown he saw no other car along in the opposite direction.
The case is proceeding.

CENTRAL HEATING.

"SUNSHINE TABLETS" ON VIEW.

"Sunshine tablets" are reported to be on view at a medical exhibition in Manchester, and "one of these pellets, it is claimed, will provide the body with as much vitamin D as would be absorbed through the naked skin in one hour of strong actinic light in the South of France or in Switzerland."
Comrades, let me bring you tidings Brighter than I ever brought;
Winter's churlishness and chills
Shortly will be set at naught;
Gaily shall we pay our footing
To the fiercelest blast that chills Now they've found a way of putting Sunshine up in little pills.

Keats, to be completely candid,
On the whole it seems to appear, Still, the dope that Keats demanded Took a rather awkward shape;
Who could carry round a beaker
Of the warm, authentic South?
Rather let the sunshine seeker
Pop a pill into his mouth.
Give me, then, the sunshine pellet.
Never mind about the dose—
Tell me quickly where they sell it
That I may acquire a gross;
With my own prescription gaily
Shall the bottle then be decked—
"To be taken in dozens daily."
As the weather may direct.
—LUCIO in "Manchester Guardian."
"O for a beaker full of the warm South!"

RUSSIA'S CLAIM.

$98,104 FROM LEHIGH VALLEY RAILROAD.

REBUFF TO SOVIET.

New York, Yesterday. The explosion of the "Black Tom" ammunition dump in New York harbour in 1914 was recalled to-day when a cheque for $98,104 has been paid in settlement of a suit for damages by the Karsensky Government of Russia against the Lehigh Valley Railroad Company for loss of the ammunition.

The cheque is payable to "Serge Ughot," whom the State Department recognised as plaintiff's representative in the United States.

The Soviet Government's motion for the appointment of a receiver to take over the fund was negatived a month ago.—Reuter's American Service.

FRENCH FINANCE.

PROTECTIVE TARIFF ON OILS.

BUDGET DETAILS.

Paris, Yesterday. The government measure revising the tariff on oils has been issued. It provides for protection to the extent of 39.98 francs per metric quintal of crude oil for French producers and 18.80 francs per 100 kilograms for medium crude oil for refiners.

The Senate by 273 votes to 17, passed the Budget form showing estimated receipts francs 42,497,000, 000 francs, with an excess of receipts over expenditure of 196,000, 000 francs.—Reuter.

WINTRY YULETIDE.

MINOR ACCIDENTS GENERAL IN EUROPE.

ICE-COATED STREETS.

Rugby, Yesterday. The number of persons treated in London hospitals for broken limbs and other casualties caused through falling on the ice-coated streets yesterday was even larger than already reported. Two thousand cases were treated at sixteen hospitals and they included some hundreds of cases of broken bones.

Press reporters indicate that many similar street accidents occurred in Paris and some German towns, where, as in London, rain fell while the ground temperature was still below freezing point.—British Wireless Service.

LATE MR. C. KLINK.

APPLICATION FOR WILL IN SHANGHAI.

Shanghai, Dec. 20. In the United States Court for China, yesterday, Mr. F. J. Schuhl presented the will of the late Mr. Charles Klink for probate, and informed Judge M. D. Purdy that an estate of about $15,000 had been left in Hong Kong, and about $15,000 in Shanghai. Mr. R. T. Bryan, Jr., represented a daughter of deceased in Manila. Judge Purdy ordered the usual publication of citations for three weeks.

Mr. Schuhl requested the Court's permission to question Mr. S. H. Lewis, who drew up the will, as the latter intended leaving for Penang before the end of the year.

Permission being granted, Mr. Lewis said that he drew up the will in January, this year, whilst deceased was confined in the Victoria Nursing Home. At all times his mind seemed clear, whilst witness took instructions.

Replying to his Honour, witness said that deceased died in September, this year. Mr. Bryan elicited from witness that deceased left hospital before he died, and that Captain Messer, husband of one daughter, who is to receive a large part of the income, asked witness to call on the late Mr. Charles Klink. According to the provisions of the will, a son in America is to receive $12,000, there is a trust fund of $50,000 for a blind son in Hong Kong, of the residue counsel's client has a life interest in one-quarter, her son to have the principal on her death, whilst Mrs. Messer is to receive three-quarters of the residue. Witness also told the Court that there had been a former will, which deceased, after adding a codicil, destroyed.

His Honour over-ruled Mr. Bryan's questions regarding the provisions of the destroyed document and the case was adjourned.

Edward Lloyd, aged 31, a miner, was at Durham Assizes sentenced to death for the murder of Police Constable Matthew Straughan at Liberty-villas, North Hylton, on June 28. The jury added to their verdict a strong recommendation to mercy.

A FATAL "SPIN."

INQUEST ON DEAD AIR MECHANIC.

FURTHER EVIDENCE.

Further evidence was heard by Mr. W. Schofield and a Coroner's jury at the Kowloon Magistracy yesterday afternoon in the inquiry into the circumstances attending the death of Leading Aircraftman French of the R.A.F., who was killed on the night of December 10 as the result of an accident whilst out for a spin with Mr. D. S. Pethick on the latter's Harley-Davidson motor cycle combination.

Sub-Inspector Phillips spoke about Mr. Pethick's condition when he reported the accident at the police station. The witness said that Mr. Pethick appeared dazed, and had abrasions on his left leg and his trousers were torn. He was covered with red earth. The witness added that Mr. Pethick was not drunk.

The witness then spoke about the finding of the body in Prince Edward Road, and said that he searched it later at the mortuary and removed several personal articles from the pockets.

Flying Officer Fowler: Why was the body not searched before it was handed over to a Chinese in the Mortuary?

Witness: The body was sent to the Kowloon Hospital and I had no opportunities of searching it. The hospital authorities sent it to the Mortuary.

In reply to the Coroner witness said that there were no signs of Mr. Pethick having had any drink.

A Missing Lamp. A contractor's coolie employed to watch the parts of Prince Edward Road which were under repair, said that during his period of watch from 6 p.m., to midnight it was his duty to see that the danger lights were burning.

His Worship: Where did you spend most of your time? In a matchbox or sitting down?

Witness: I was walking about and standing around all the time. I had not time to sit down.

How many times did you visit the lamps?—Five or six times.

Continuing, witness said that the lights burned brightly until on one occasion when he visited the obstacle where the accident happened. One of the lights was missing. The other was still alight. The missing lamp was replaced.

When the witness replaced the missing lamp he did not see anybody or vehicle on the road, and he noticed nothing unusual except that a cross board seemed slightly out of position.

Earth Not There.

Mr. F. E. Lawrence, overseer of the Public Works Department, said that he examined the work which was being carried out at the place where the accident occurred. It was the construction of a storm water drain from Waterloo Road extension to the Mongkok nullah. Witness visited these works almost daily.

Prior to the accident witness had only passed the place at night when the work was first started. He had visited the spot since the tragedy and found that there were four lamps on the obstacle at night.

Referring to the earth on the roadway, witness said that it was not there when he last visited the place.

Continuing witness said that his instructions were that roads could be safely opened up to a minimum width of ten and a half feet, which was sufficiently wide for the fire engines to pass.

The inquiry was again adjourned.

MYSTERY &amp; DRAMA.

"THE CHINESE PARROT" AT THE QUEEN'S.

Again have the Hong Kong Amusements Company scored a brilliant success in the art (or is it science) of picture picking. At the Queen's they are now screening a photoplay full of drama and mystery and intense human interest called "The Chinese Parrot." The scenery, too, is beautiful. The story hinges around a string of pearls, "tears of the ocean," and the efforts of crooks to obtain them. The central character is Charlie Chan, a Chinese detective from Honolulu, a part played by K. Sojin, though better-known names in the cast are Marion Nixon, Florence Turner, Hobart Bosworth (who doubles two of the leading characters) and Edmund Burns. The picture drew crowded "houses" yesterday, and will be shown to-day and to-morrow.

There is a sparkling "Felix" cartoon and a Paramount news-reel also in the programme.

A settlement was reached of the action before Mr. Justice Astbury by Mr. G. W. Peachey, a director of the Arsenal Football Club Ltd., against the three other directors of the club. Mr. Peachey agreed to resign "here and now," defendants undertaking to pay his taxed costs in that action and in another action in Mr. Justice Clouston's list all further proceedings being stayed.

ALLEGED FRAUD.

CHRISTIE AND BLUMH IN COURT AGAIN.

RESERVISTS' EVIDENCE.

The hearing was begun by Major C. Willson at the Central Magistracy yesterday afternoon in the case in which James Christie and Christopher Blumh who were recently discharged by Mr. R. E. Lindsell on a charge of alleged fraud in morphia, are indicated on a fresh charge of criminal conspiracy to defraud Au Yeung Kin Heng, the Chinese Police Reservist who was introduced to the accused by Leslie Ernest Haynes as a merchant from Malaya and a prospective buyer of the drug.

The whole of yesterday's sitting was taken up in the hearing of the evidence of Au Yeung who repeated the story he told before Mr. Lindsell when the accused were charged under the Dangerous Drugs Ordinance.

He explained how he was introduced to Haynes by the police and afterwards taken by Haynes to the accused's office at No. 480, Nathan Road where the first question Christie asked him was "You wanchee morph?"

The witness, by arrangement with the police, pretended that he did not understand English, and his discussion with Christie about price was interpreted by a man named Kay. The witness was sure that throughout the discussion the Chinese word meaning "all" was never used by Kay. Kay also never mentioned morphia to the witness.

The phrase he used in reference to the subject of the discussion was "ko to lo," meaning "that cargo." The witness understood, however, that morphia was referred to because before Kay's arrival, Christie had used the word "morph" to the witness.

CINEMA NOTES.

"THE LAST DAYS OF POMPEII."

The Last Days of Pompeii, one of the most spectacular films ever produced, depicting the eruption of Vesuvius and the destruction of the city of Pompeii, will be shown at the World Theatre to-day and to-morrow. The picture cost $100,000 to make, required a year to complete, and employed 45,000 persons. Cinema-goers are reminded that, owing to the length of the picture, screening begins promptly at the advertised time. The orchestra plays at 5 and 9.30 and an interpreter attends at 2.30 and 7.15.

AT THE STAR.

The picture at the Star Theatre to-day and to-morrow is "Wandering Husbands," a domestic drama with an unusual climax. The leading players are James Kirkwood, Lila Lee, and Margaret Livingston.

HOW CHINA STANDS.

PRESS COMMENTS UPON YANG YU-TING'S STATEMENTS.

That the Tanaka Ministry opened negotiations for solving the pending questions on Manchuria and Mongolia with the Generalissimo Office, Peking, means a recognition of its sovereignty over Manchuria and Mongolia. The same recognition is the first expression of the Ministry's good will to the Generalissimo Office. It is intended to settle all the long pending issues with the same good will, wedded to the reciprocal good will expected from the Generalissimo Office, in order to substantiate the Sino-Japanese solidarity, as a common motto of the two peoples' runs.

The Generalissimo Office, Peking, interprets this as an act of aggression, and at the start, without stopping to weigh things carefully, incited the populace in the Three Eastern Provinces to rise against the Peking negotiations, and on realising the futility of such move, Yang Yu-ting's statement made its appearance, only to court the righteous indignation of the Japanese officialdom and people, at the risk of forfeiting the good will of the Tanaka Ministry for the Generalissimo Office, Peking.

General Yang's statement has not only roused ill feeling in Japan, but also in the West, in particular in the United States.

The most influential journals have arrayed themselves as if by concert against the General's statement. Setting aside the accuracy of this almost concerted attack, we feel flattered to notice in these attacks words of appreciation of Japan's activities in Manchuria and Mongolia, including those of the S.M.R. Co.

Among these passages we find: "Japan of to-day is not ambitious to strengthen her political foothold in Manchuria and Mongolia."

Another runs: "What has made Manchuria what it is now is through Japan's effort, and those who are benefited thereby are China and the Chinese." A third states: "No capitalistic people on earth will care to invest in China at present, but Japan's investments for developing Manchuria and Mongolia may be regarded as quite another matter." Still another opines that "China need not ask where-from the capital has come as long as Japan's enterprises in Manchuria are for opening up China." We might be permitted to quote a few more. Another states: "The Generalissimo Office may hope to retain its influence in China by securing Japan's trust and concert." There is still another that "compares any attempt on China's part to discredit Japan in the eyes of the United States through Yang's statement to an effort to change the earth's orbit around the sun."

The above are only fragmentary extracts of the comments in the foreign newspapers.

We might rest satisfied with such a wide appreciation of Japan's sacrifices paid in Manchuria and Mongolia in the cause of the peace of the Orient for such long years in the past. They have been sacrifices really worth paying. Yang himself might not have made such a statement, if only he had had a good understanding of this.—Y.T. in "Manchuria Daily News."

A French historical mystery 112 years old has now been solved. A silver model of a French mail-of-war, the Ville de Paris, disappeared from Napoleon's Court after Waterloo. It was recently bought by a collector of curios, and was exhibited with other models at the Ackermann Galleries, London. A French visitor who saw it there informed the authorities in France,
who desire the model for the Louvre. The model graced the Court of Marie Antoinette, but disappeared during the revolution. Later it was discovered, and presented by the citizens of Paris to Napoleon when he was First Consul. Refugees from the French Court, secretly brought it to England, and eventually sold it.

when he was suddenly attacked by the buffalo, which rushed at him from the dense bush. His gun was unloaded, and he was thrown twenty feet to one side by the animal's charge. The buffalo turned to attack him again, when it noticed his camera, which was lying on the ground some distance away. It attacked the camera, stamped it out of recognition, and then swerved off into the bush and disappeared. Mr. Kirby, who was badly injured, managed to make his way to the nearest settlement.

Mr. W. Schofield yesterday gave another remand in the case in which a coolie employed by the

ment in connection with a charge of armed robbery committed in company with seven other members of

at 279 South Chengtu Road. Property to the value of $800 was stolen. The accused was also charged with contempt of court in that he returned from a sentence of expulsion imposed upon him by the old Mixed Court.

An unusual and interesting feature of the Dairy Farm's Christmas display this year is the show of their own farm fed veal
and pork slaughtered and dressed in the approved London style by members of their European butchery staff. The carcasses of veal are especially tempting, the brightly hued hides forming a very effective draping. The display is right up to Home custom and judging by the number of turkeys,
etc., on view Hong Kong is going to do itself well this Christmas.

Suffolk, Virginia, invented a new championship, which should prove popular everywhere, when Mrs. L.
C. Latimer was judged by a committee of four seasoned married men to be the champion "husband caller" of the world. The wives were asked to call their husbands on a number of occasions which might arise in everyday home life.
The men were alternately smoking,
reading, or asleep at the far end of a long room. Mrs. Latimer won because she was stated to have put the necessary amount of "endearment, pathos, and urgency"
into her voice to arouse any husband from his usual state of complacency. The second place was awarded to a woman who was the only one of the 15 entrants who spoke threat-ingly.

Special photographs appear in this week's issue of the "Overland China Mail" depicting the stirring and bloody events that took place in Canton recently, when Communists sacked
the city, driving from it what few Ironside troops there were there.

Canton has not yet recovered from the blow, despite the fact that the city is again in the hands of the Government troops. Efforts are being made to secure the return of General Li Chai-sum, the business community being anxious to experience something like settled conditions before Chinese New Year. At present little commercial or industrial activity is apparent. Full reports of events in Canton appear in the "Overland."

Local news—social, commercial and sporting—receives comprehensive treatment in the "Overland," there being a particularly interesting crop of Criminal Sessions' cases, together with an account of the hanging of the pirates who were concerned in the "Irene" outrage recently.

SPORTS

HOLIDAY FOOTBALL.

SATURDAY AND MONDAY GAMES.

Full and Promising Programme.

ENGLAND v. CHINA.

INTERNATIONALS FOR THE "SUNDAY HERALD" CUP.

[By "The Rover."]

The League Programme for Saturday is limited owing to the Interport Trial v. The Navy on the Club Ground which should be worth seeing. The matches for Saturday are as follows:—

- Club Ground.
- Interport XI v. Royal Navy, kick off 3.45 p.m.
- Hong Kong League Division I, kick off 4.00 p.m.
- Queen's Regt. v. South China, Chatham Road, Kowloon.
- Hong Kong League Division A, Junior.
- South China v. Hong Kong Club Res., Sookumpoo.
- Kowloon Res. v. Chinese Athletic, Kowloon A.F.C.
- Hong Kong League Division B, Junior.
- Boy Scouts v. South China, South China Ground, Valley.
- Kung Woo v. Chinese Athletic, Yaumati.
- Friendly Match, kick off 4.00 p.m.
- Kowloon v. H.M.S. "Hawkins," Kowloon A.F.C.

Although the League programme is curtailed, we have two great matches arranged for the Holidays on Monday and Tuesday which are as follows:

- "Sunday Herald" Charity Cup, Monday, Dec. 26.
- Scotland v. Portugal, Club Ground, Valley, kick off 3.45.
- Tuesday, Dec. 27.
- England v. China, Club Ground, Valley, kick off 3.45.

Chief interest on Saturday will centre in the match on the Club Ground when the Interport team meets the Royal Navy and if the latter side can hold the Interport forward line at full strength they will be a good team. If the Interport team play as selected, I don't think any team the Navy can select at present will get within three goals of our probable representatives, but that has to be proved and if the Naval side can extend the selected side they will do good service.

At Kowloon we are favoured with the only Senior League match, and on recent form the Queens' are not likely to repeat their smashing victory at the Valley when they won by 10 goals to nil. South China are a team to be respected on their day by the best in the Colony and this should be a good game.

Both the Senior Civilian Clubs of the Colony are fielding strong Reserve Teams and the Club Reserves v. South China, also Kowloon v. Chinese Athletic should be games well above the average of junior matches and well worth seeing.

Kowloon are staging a friendly with H.M.S. "Hawkins" and although several of the ships' team will not doubt be assisting the Naval XI at the Valley, this should provide a good match for Kowloon spectators.

The chief interest in the Holiday programme, however, is reserved for Monday and Tuesday, when Scotland's selected will meet Portugal's selected, and England's selected will also meet China. These games will be especially keen and interesting, as the issue at stake is the "Sunday Herald" Charity Cup, and on both days there are sure to be great crowds. The matches are in the nature of international contests, and as such create great interest. The chosen of Scotland present a formidable team and the eleven consist of K.O.S.B. Regt. (5), Scots Guards (3) and Club (3) and should render a good account of themselves, whereas Portugal will be represented by practically a Club de Recreio side, as all the Portuguese players of the Colony aspire to a position in the King's Park Team. It is hoped that Gosano, Brown, Remedios and the remaining "injuries" of the Recreio team will be fit and on view as then we shall have a fine game and a very open one.

The great game, however, should be on Tuesday when England oppose China, and China will be practically if not entirely China Athletic. This should be a great game, and I like the look of the English side, particularly forward. If this English side disappoints on Tuesday we shall have to raise our hats to the Athletic, because with Northey, Vernon and Leach inside forwards, there is no Club team can put a side like this in the field, whilst on either side of these admittedly good forwards there is a good winger in Larking and Herbridge.

At half back these scoring forwards will be assisted by Sims, who has yet to play a poor game, with Everest and Watson good workers and both fast. The English last line of defence is nearly top-weight, and may be, on this occasion, and Bishop, Wynne, and Avery will be given a thorough testing. There will be a great amount of interest taken in this game, and in view of the visit of the South China organisation to Shanghai, coincident with the visit of the Hong Kong Interport team to the same port, for a series of games with the Northern Chinese teams, the match on Amos Alonso Stagg, football coach of the University of Chicago. Stagg is one of the famous coaches of America.

Tuesday will be regarded as a real test of strength all round. Earlier in the season I predicted that the Chinese Athletic will only be beaten by a team of eleven good players strong in every position, and it is hoped the English side will take the field in good form, despite the festive season, all out for real hard afternoon's work. Their opponents will leave nothing to chance, but if the English side play up to their Club form and reputation, they should be on the right side at the finish. Their only weakness should be in combination, in which their opponents excel, but this the English side should counteract by experience. Hong Kong charities should greatly benefit by this fine series of matches.

Rugby. Yesterday.

An undertaking that the Cabinet would consider the whole question of greyhound racing was given last night by Sir William Joynson Hicks, who received a deputation on this subject, representing three political parties and introduced by Mr. John Thomas, Labourite. The deputation laid before the Home Secretary the anxiety felt regarding the growth of betting, particularly among youths which took place on dog races. Mr. Joynson Hicks said he shared the deputation's anxiety concerning the effects of the enormous extension of the new sport, but the Government had to be fully satisfied as to its evil results before interfering.

Regarding juvenile betting he had, however, directed an investigation as to the Home Secretary's powers to deal with it. If legislation was necessary he would have an opportunity to protect minors next year in a new bill relating to children.

On the broad question, the whole matter would have to be considered by the Government in the moral and material interests of the community generally. He gave a warning hint to those investing money in the new undertakings to promote greyhound racing in various parts of the country, that its development had been so sudden and so extensive that any government must give serious attention to it. He promised a fuller statement of government policy when the House of Commons, re-assembled in February. —British Wireless Service.

QUEEN'S

CHRISTMAS DAY.

BILLIARDS AT SEA.

A novel Games Record is claimed by the Blue Star liner "Avelona" believed to be the first time on record, games of billiards formed part of the regular recreation of westward-bound passengers. Billiards has, for obvious reasons, always been regarded as a game which it was impossible to play on board ship. For many years the leading firms of billiards-table manufacturers have been experimenting with tables which adjusted themselves to the incline of the ship was inclined. Such devices have, however, always proved too elaborate and costly to be adopted by the shipping companies, and billiards tables have never been installed on ships, except on a few battleships—for use in harbour. The games on board the "Avelona" were played on a portable table taken on board by a passenger, and were made possible by the exceptional smoothness of the sea and the absence of vibration on the ship. "The ship was as steady as terra firma," said one of the players, "and some quite respectable breaks were made. The game was played regularly for twelve consecutive days over nearly 4,000 miles of the Atlantic. Not a stroke was spoiled by oscillation or a departure from the true level."

MUSIC • DRAMA • FILMS.

MUSIC FROM AIR.

HANDS THAT PLAY WITHOUT AN INSTRUMENT.

In the Beethoven Hall in Berlin, a florid and hideous place where Johannes Brahms and Anton Rubinstein have played, I have listened to the strangest concert of all time (writes Philip Page, in the "Evening Standard").

Miraculous is an overworked adjective these days, but to music that comes from no instrument and no voice, that is neither heard over the wireless nor the result of a gramophone record it is surely applicable.

The quality of the music matters little, and those who produced it were careful to explain that they were primarily scientists, and not musicians. There was no showmanship, and no deliberately cultivated atmosphere of mystery. Prospero's Isle was far distant, but not, it seemed, his magic, and one did in truth ask, "Where should this music be, the air or the earth?"

A Professor from Leningrad.

The music was produced by a man in a dinner jacket—Professor Theremin, a Russian, from the Physikalisch-Technischen Institute, Leningrad. His knowledge of German was peculiar, but not extensive, and a long "vorspiel" was delivered by a German friend. This was an explanation of the technical basis of this "atherwellen-musik," and I will refer to it later.

What Professor Theremin did was, in short, to make music with his hands, with hands that touched nothing that mortal eye could see. He plucked, not at a harp, but at the air. With his right hand shaking a non-existent "plectrum," and his left moving slowly up and down in space to regulate the changes from "piano" to "forte," he "played" simple melodies—"Connais tu le pays?" from "Rigoletto," Saint-Saens' "Le Cygne," Schubert's "Ave Maria"—with a tone like that of a violin, though rather more rounded and homelike.

Between each piece he explained haltingly, that the rendering might not have been technically perfect, but that it came from the air, and from nowhere else. He was obviously sincere and truthful; but had he been the reverse, the array of eminent German scientists and professors would have discovered any charlatanism by the sheer force of dome-like foreheads and intent expressions of Teutonic intellectuality to the nth degree.

Einstein Present.

Einstein was there, giving the right German word when the lecturer faltered, and applauding—a sad-faced man in a dark grey suit. Gerhart Hauptmann, robust and rubicund, nodded approval. Among the many musicians were Leo Slezak, the Wagnerian tenor, and Bruno Walter, the conductor. "Where the professor is leading us to," Walter said to me after the demonstration, "I can hardly think until I have viewed the whole position, calmly and alone. Music without instruments! A voice that is no voice! The thing is in its infancy, of course—but a formidable infant."

To the student of Hertzian waves this "air music" is, possibly, not quite so formidable a problem. Professor Theremin generates these waves in a small wooden box, from which projects a brass rod about a foot long. He touches neither the box nor the rod. The waves are there and by agitating them a high note or a low note is produced. To produce these notes and even a definite tune is not at all difficult.

My knowledge of science simply does not exist, but I found it easy to follow the professor's example, and, with no discourteous intention, I shook out "Home, sweet home" from the air—a most uncanny experience.

The Limitations.

At present the limitations of this mystery music are:

(1) That only a violin tone is produced (though a scarcely successful attempt was made to extract a human contralto voice);

(2) That only a single note can be evolved by the individual, and notes in combination—i.e., harmony—are not at present possible. Several individuals, however, could remedy this deficiency by "playing" simultaneously.

Its astounding novelty consists in the fact that for the first time in history music (other than vocal music) is divorcing itself from mechanical means. The air, not an instrument, is played upon. Moreover, anyone without any technical knowledge is able by this means to produce music comparable in its beauty of tone to that which the skilled player of an instrument may take years to attain, and this not by switching on the wireless, putting on a gramophone record, or sitting down at a piano. It is indeed a revolution.

SCREENINGS.

Notorious persons and undesirable stories are kept out of the movies by means of co-operative arrangement between the individual producer and the Motion Picture Producers and Distributors of America, according to Will Hays.

Asked how it happened that several notorious characters had failed to appear in the movies after announcing "fabulous" offers from the producers, Hays said: "The Motion Picture Producers and Distributors do not censor stories, nor bar anybody from pictures."

"If any producer of our group is offered the picture rights to a book or play about which he has any doubt—I mean as to its propriety for general showing—he notifies this office. If the association agrees with the producer it would be unwise to picture the subject, the producer refrains from doing so."

"In this way not only are certain subjects failing to reach the public through the screen, but it is possible that literature itself may be raised in moral tone because authors want their works to be pictured."

San Francisco will furnish the background for Mary Pickford's new picture, "My Best Girl." The story was written by Kathleen Norris after a suggestion by Miss Pickford, and the heroine is a girl clerk in a 5 and 10 cent store.

There is a chance that Miss Pickford will choose a girl from each of the 5 and 10 cent stores in the city to appear in "My Best Girl," providing that suitable types can be found and that the stores co-operate in the plan.

A big feature these days is apt to be followed by a comedy burlesque film on the same order. "The Half Back of Notre Dame," patterned after "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," and "Bull and Sand," modelled on Ibanez' famous "Blood and Sand," are cases in point.

An epidemic of strange licence plates broke loose in Los Angeles recently and the police stopped 200 automobiles with plates which came from no known part of the world. The cars were lined along the curb for almost a half hour, before police officials could check up the story told by the man in charge of the strangely licensed caravan. Inquiry revealed that the cars were used by F. W. Murnau while making "Sunrise" for Fox. In the picture there is a city which represents a big town, but is purposely not identified as belonging to any particular country. The autos naturally had plates which were just as cosmopolitan. The man in charge had forgotten to remove these when he entered Los Angeles. The chief of police finally found "Old Man Absent Minded" guilty of the violation and cleared up the situation by placing an officer on the leading car to take the procession through the city.

Dorothy Revier, talented and beauty star of the Master Pictures "Stolen Pleasures," is one of the most admired of screen women. Previous to being chosen for a screen career Miss Revier studied the art of, and appeared in Russian ballet dancing. During the past season Alexander Neville, celebrated American portrait painter, was commissioned to choose 25 of the most beautiful types among screen women to decorate the Salon d'Art at the Sesquicentennial Exposition at Philadelphia. Miss Revier's colourful type was the first to win favour with the artist, and so it was that the black-haired, grey-eyed screen star and daughter of California was chosen, not alone as a member of a group of beautiful women to decorate the hall of screen beauty, but also to represent her State as California's typical beauty for the year of 1926. This is the fourth time that she has been the winning choice in beauty contests.

Ben Turpin recently burlesqued the whole school of Graustarkian toy kingdom romances in a slapstick comedy. William Frayne, recently returned to the Universal banner as an actor of Reginald Denny's "I'll Be There," recalls what he claims was the first of the Joker series put out by Universal twelve years or more ago, shortly after an early "mammoth feature production" of Jules Verne's classic, "Twenty Thousand Leagues Under the Sea." It was a bathing girl comedy called "Twenty Thousand Legs Under the Sea."

Alma Rubens was born in San Francisco, California. When a child Alma had dreams of seeing her name in electric lights as a dramatic star. Her dolls invariably were named after leading actors and actresses. Miss Rubens' first screen appearance was with Douglas Fairbanks as leading lady in "The Half Breed." She is one of the few stars who has never had the fatiguing experience of "gate crashing" as an extra. All her knowledge of the technique of the screen has been learned in leading roles. The charming actress left California after her picture with Mr. Fairbanks and visited many parts of the world; including Canada, England, Germany, France and the Orient, to broaden her outlook and assist in the visualisation of her roles. Miss Rubens is interested in short story writing; and particularly in simplicity of style and the beauty of words which express unaffectedly the thought of the writer. Her first role this season is in the Fox production "Marriage Licence." She has just finished her role in "The Heart of Salome."

Tom Mix, Fox Western star, made certain that his wife would not find herself short of cash at Carlsbad, or when she takes a look at Westminster Abbey on her forthcoming trip abroad. At a little dinner party given by Mrs. Mix's mother, Tom presented his wife with a cheque for $5,000 to cover expenses and another for spending money. The latter was for $20,000, which should buy heaps of souvenirs. Mrs. Mix, who recently underwent a serious operation, left Los Angeles on May 12 for her trip abroad.
